

Resources <sup>R</sup> Us

Time unlike money once spent can't be re-earned. Don't overlook us as a valuable resource to help you conserve and better manage your time. Our services work to aid you in many areas, they are broad based bringing numerous time saving functions to you that are outside of traditional insurance brokerage and they're value added. With quality digital media delivered in all formats, (CD, DVD, Mpeg, etc.) Across any platform, (Internet/Intranet, TV, PC, Audio, Printed.) We help you communicate with systems that are flexible.

We provide useful tools for you in the form of spreadsheets, executive benefit summaries, newsletters, benefit based web portals. We don't just bring new ideas to you - we bring you the tools to make them a reality, with our support along the way. From COBRA services to first class customer service with one phone number. Again - It's all value added.

- We'll show you how to communicate a quality benefit package to your employees and more important we'll show you how to bring the message to their families, times are changing and communications are essential.
- We'll show you how to hold employee orientations on a more consistent basis, communicating better, saving time and documenting meeting.
- We'll show you how to provide on-line benefits, showing all the benefits of working for your company. Our site, your benefits, 24/7/52.

Benefits are too big an investment to just throw out to your employees, they need to be promoted and understood. Make your employees more aware of the value of their "second" paycheck. Make your employees better health consumers it all heads back to your bottom line.

We have solutions, and they're ... value added.
